

CALL FOR PROPOSAL - 2019 RESEARCH GRANT APPLICATION FORM

The full call of proposal can be downloaded from Game in Lab's website:

<https://www.game-in-lab.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/Game-in-Lab-Call-for-proposal-2019-EN.pdf>

The application is made online. A complete zipped application file, including this document, the requested appendices (estimated budget, CV of the project leader, list of publications, reference bibliography, ludography, ...) and other relevant documents will be attached to the online form.

The received applications will be evaluated and selected by Game in Lab's scientific committee. Game in Lab's team may ask the bearer for additional information or suggest adjustments to the initial proposal.

Incomplete application files will be not be considered.

For any question concerning the call for proposal, please contact us:

<http://www.game-in-lab.org/about/#contact>

PROJECT'S DESCRIPTION

PROJECT'S NAME:

KEYWORDS (5 max):

1. Project leader

- Name and surname:
- Role / Function:
- Scientific disciplin:
- Home institution / country:
- Research Unit:
- Postal address:
- Email:

The CV of the project's leader, including a list of related publications will be included in the application file.

2. Team's composition

If the project involves several partners, please provide a short presentation of each team (home insitution, team's constitution, ...).

For each independent team's leader, specify:

- Name and surname:
- Role / Function:
- Scientific disciplin:
- Home institution / country:
- Research Unit:
- Postal address:
- Email:

3. Description of the project and expected outcomes (25,000 signs max)

- Theme (s): what is the theme of the project, and how does it relate to board games?
- Main objectives of the project, problem it seeks to solve, originality and scientific impact of the proposed research, adopted methodology, bibliographic elements, ...

- Research agenda (macro and detailed planning). The project must span on a short time (≤ 12 months)
- Plan for diffusion and valorisation of the research to the general public (if applicable)
- Detailed budget
The total allocation of this edition of the call for proposal is 30 000€. The grant allocated to each selected project cannot exceed 15 000 €. Hence, the final number of projects selected will depend on the amounts allocated per project.
- How do the proposed project relates to Game in Lab's objectives (defined as the expansion of scientific research on board games; popularisation and valorisation of scientific research to the general public; development of mixed forms of research with game professionals)
- Project's deliverables

4. Additional information

Other sources of funding for the project: list other funding sources. Please add support letters of support from the concerned funding institutions when appropriate.